

NOMINEES TO THE ECCC LEADERSHIP BOARD

My name is ERIK ANDERSON. I live in Winnipeg with my wife Kris who is a teacher, and our 3 boys (Gus, Ike and Mo) who keep us from ever thinking we have life figured out. I've only ever known local church life in the Evangelical Covenant. I was raised in the Nelson Covenant Church and the Covenant Church in Winnipeg. Covenant Heights Bible Camp and Covenant Bible College were formative in my faith development. I am a Swede who pastors a church where Penners, Reimers, and Friesens vastly outnumber Johnsons, Nelsons, and Petersons. I love Scripture, which like my kids keeps me from thinking I've got God and neighbour perfectly figured. I smoke meat, curl second, stand in front of the net looking for garbage goals, and make pilgrimage via city bus down Pembina Hwy 10 times a year to cheer on the Blue and Gold with a dozen dear friends. I look forward to how God continues to invite, challenge, and grow our family of churches.

Term 2017-2020

My name is LORI SNOXELL. My family and I started attending Hope Community Covenant Church in Strathmore in 2002. It was a decision that has significantly shaped my growth in Christ and continues to challenge me to live an "eyes-wide open", "with Jesus" life. My husband, Roger, and I live on the family farm where we raised our two children, Jen and Jon, and operated a small tree nursery. I am a teacher by training, and have spent the past 20 years walking alongside home schooling mamas and their children and mentoring and supporting teachers; such a joy! I've been a part of Hope's leadership team, served in Alpha, welcome team, and worship team ministries, and love meeting new people and walking alongside those who are on the Jesus journey.

Term 2017-2020

NATASHA WESTERHOUD was born in Former Yugoslavia and came to Canada when she was 4 years old. She has lived in Quebec, Ontario, Alberta, British Columbia and is currently living in Norquay Saskatchewan serving the Norquay Covenant Church as their Associate Pastor. She is a graduate of Canadian Bible Seminary holding a degree in Christian Education.

In her 20 years of pastoring, her ministry interests include discipling students, cross culture opportunities, promoting fair trade opportunities, leading mission's trips, walking along side women, pastoral care counselling, and shoes. She has a passion for gathering people and over a good cup of coffee loves to hear people's stories. In her free time she blogs, organizes ladies chocolate nights, holds book clubs, dabbles in photography.

She has led international workshops which included a week long girls retreat in Russia. She is currently a part of The Mercy House ministry in Kenya and is published in their recent fundraising book project called The Mom Quilt. She is also one of the two leaders in the ECCC Ecuador mission trips and is on the board for the Santiago Partnership in Ecuador and works alongside the board to raise funds for the medical clinic and Home for at Risk kids.

Natasha has been married for 20 years to a wonderful man, Mike, and is the mom of an amazing 5 year old little girl, Hana. They are all very excited as they wait patiently for the next addition to their family from Vietnam!
